HRH said "the weather is like being in the tropics". It was 35C but some of us took shelter within the many stalls and enjoyed a lot of the displays. Especially the one by the hunky paratroopers seen above.

Some of us took refuge from the heat in the nice cool church - that was before we spied the Pimms tent!

There were hundreds of stalls selling all different goods and services it really took a whole day to get around. It was such an enjoyable trip which was made easy by being picked up and delivered back to Mawsley in a nice clean and comfortable coach. Fab day out! Congratulations & thanks to Caroline Caplan who organised it all. xx
